

UMUC Faculty Profile Template

Dr. Les Livingstone, Program Director & Professor

AMBA 605: The Economics of Management Decisions

Business & Executive Programs

Position(s) Held

- President of my own national litigation consulting firm.
- Previously a vice president of a global consulting firm, since acquired by Cap Gemini/Ernst & Young Consulting.
- Previously a partner in PricewaterhouseCoopers, the world's largest international accounting firm.

Education/Degrees Held

MBA & Ph.D. (Stanford), CPA (NY & TX)

Courses Instructed

AMBA 605 The Economics of Management Decisions

Brief Statement About Instructor

Les has spent about half of his career in the business world, and half in the academic world. He has testified as an expert witness in accounting, economics and finance in more than 100 cases of commercial litigation involving patent infringement, breach of contract, antitrust, securities litigation, fraudulent financial reporting, and electric utility regulation.

Publications

Author of 11 books, 10 chapters in leading handbooks, and more than 50 articles in professional journals. Latest books are Guide To Business Valuation (Freeload Press) and The Portable MBA In Finance & Accounting (John Wiley & Sons), translated into 7 foreign languages.

Honors/Awards

Previously Arthur Young Distinguished Professor of Accounting at Ohio State University, and Callaway Professor of Finance at Georgia Institute of Technology. Listed in Who's Who in the World and Who's Who in America.