

UMUC Faculty Profile Template

Dr. Paula C. O'Callaghan, Adjunct Assistant Professor

Business & Executive Programs

Position(s) Held

Assistant Dean, External Programs, Whitman School, Syracuse University

Education/Degrees Held

Juris Doctor (Syracuse University); Master of Business Administration (Syracuse University); Bachelor of Arts (University of Massachusetts, Amherst)

Courses Instructed

AMBA 601

Brief Statement About Instructor

After practicing corporate law Professor O'Callaghan embarked on a career in higher education administration. She has 15 years of experience as a senior administrator for a major research university, having worked in both the law school and the business school. Her business school experience includes six years as director of a distance learning MBA program for executives. She has delivered group study programs for executive students in New York City, Washington, London, Florence, Dublin and Shanghai, and Bermuda. She has presented on distance learning topics at two AACSB national conferences.

Publications

Professor O'Callaghan has been quoted in 'The Wall Street Journal', 'Fortune', 'The Financial Times (London)', 'InfoWorld', 'Harvard Management Update', 'AMA Marketing News' and 'Education Week'. She is the author of the foreword to the "Complete Idiot's Guide to Earning your MBA Online" by Alpha/Penguin (2005).