

MOVE YOUR CAREER FORWARD WITH A MASTER'S DEGREE FROM UMUC

The demand for leaders in a wide range of technology-related disciplines has never been greater—or more critical to the security of our nation. That's why University of Maryland University College (UMUC) has developed state-of-the-art graduate degree programs to help you build the advanced management skills you'll need to qualify for many top positions.

THE UMUC AND NDU iCOLLEGE GRADUATE PARTNERSHIP WILL SAVE YOU TIME AND MONEY

UMUC partners with the National Defense University (NDU) to make it easier for motivated military and Department of Defense personnel like you to achieve your educational goals. The UMUC Graduate School of Management and Technology continues to restructure its degree programs, allowing the transfer of credits from a growing number of NDU iCollege certificate programs, including

- Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Certificate
- Chief Information Officer (CIO) Certificate
- Government Strategic Leader (GSL) Certificate
- Information Assurance (4011) Certificate
- Information Technology Project Management (ITPM) Certificate
- Organizational Transformation (OT) Certificate

AN INFORMATION ASSURANCE SCHOLARSHIP COULD PUT A UMUC MASTER'S DEGREE WITHIN REACH

A special scholarship could fully fund your UMUC graduate program. The U.S. Department of Defense is offering an Information Assurance Scholarship Program (IASP) for students who want to pursue fields of study related to information assurance. UMUC is supporting this program through its Security Studies Laboratory. If you are planning to focus your studies on information assurance, you may be eligible for this scholarship.

For more details about the IASP scholarship, please contact Gilliam E. Duval at DuvalG@ndu.edu.

UMUC HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The National Security Agency (NSA) and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) have designated UMUC a National Center of Academic Excellence in Information Assurance Education.
